

Shannon is a veteran of the United States Marine Corps, is a dedicated mom of three vivacious kids, has a talent for organization & detail, and is the CEO of Restoring the Courageous.

Shannon is a licensed Massage Therapist and is currently a student at Mid America Nazarene University studying Kinesiology with anticipated graduation in the fall of 2021.

Her company is committed to aiding in the healing process through therapeutic massage. If you suffer from chronic pain, please consider reaching out to schedule your session here: www.RestoringtheCourageous.com